MINISTRY OF LAW & JUSTICE
(DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE)

A2J/Legal Literacy/01/2017

Dated : 07-03-2017

Dear Dr Chopra,

Access to Justice for Marginalized Project is being implemented by the Department of Justice, Ministry of law and Justice in partnership with United Nations Development Program. The Project aims at strengthening access to justice for the marginalized - particularly women, scheduled castes, scheduled tribes, minorities, senior citizens, undertrial prisoners etc. - by supporting strategies and initiatives that seek to address the barriers they face.

With the endeavour to make legal knowledge and information accessible and disseminated in a sustained and creative way and to collate the voluntary initiatives of various individuals and institutions working for the cause of Access to Justice, under one dedicated platform, the Department of Justice has envisaged for Creation of Resource House/Bank for Legal literacy, Legal Awareness and Legal Empowerment.

The Department of Justice invites entries on the following eight themes that include Child Rights; Women Rights; Rights of Persons with Special Needs; Rights of Undertrial persons; Fundamental Duties; Welfare of socially and economically backward classes of society and persons under circumstances of caste atrocity; ethnic violence; Juvenile Justice and Forest and Indigenous Communities. The Department proposes to promote legal literacy and social justice using these audio-video materials in dedicated TV / Radio channels.

It is requested that you may kindly inform your faculty / students who are interested to participate in this contest.

The details of the proposal requesting to send Legal Literacy / Legal Awareness / Legal Empowerment video / shortfilm material are available at web portal of Department of Justice at <http://doj.gov.in/>.
