ABOUT
To encourage creativity and higher-order thinking in a way that increases student performance. I have a strong interest in well-defined and articulated learning objectives are important because they provide students with a clear purpose to focus their learning efforts, direct their choice of instructional activities and guide their assessment strategies. I have multiple research publications in Scopus-indexed journals, WOS Impact Factor, the Australian Business Deans Council, the Chartered Association of Business Schools, and peer-reviewed journals. Research provides a platform to make me aware of economic and sustainable issues that help me connect the classroom curriculum to real-world applications.
