ANNUAL REPORT 2017-2018

From the Principal's Desk

Dear Friends and Colleagues,

On the occasion of the Annual Day and Prize Distribution Ceremony, 2018, I extend a warm welcome to our chief guest and honorable chairman of the G. B., Prof. Abhay Kumar Dubey; the guest of honor, Prof. Ajoy Kumar Ghatak; distinguished guest and honorable treasurer of G. B., Shri Kulbir Singh, and other members of the Governing Body.

I also welcome the awardees, my dear colleagues and non-teaching staff. As I place the Annual Report before you, I am confident that you will recognize and felicitate the achievements of both the students and faculty members of Delhi College of Arts & Commerce in the academic and extra-curricular activities. A perusal of the Report will highlight the contribution of all stakeholders in the successful implementation of all events and activities conducted in the college.

Over the course of the academic year our students earned laurels in various sports, NCC and NSS. In addition to this their articles and essays were published in many journals and books, our faculty is engaged in higher research: three members are currently pursuing their PhDs, many have attended international and national seminars and conferences and have had their work published in various books, journals and magazines.

Dr Rajiv Chopra
OSD-Principal

Department of History

The Department of History organized a fresher's party to welcome its first year students in September. The Department also held its annual Academic and Cultural festival Dharohar on 21 February 2018. The event began with an inaugural lecture by an eminent Academician, Dr. Rakesh Batbayal, Jawaharlal Nehru University, in which he gave deep insights into different forms of popular culture. It was followed by screening of a documentary on George Orwell in the land of Satyagraha by an ex-student of DCAC who is a freelance writer and a documentary filmmaker. This film has brought into focus the neglected birthplace of the world famous literary figure George Orwell. The other highlights of the festival were inter-college activities like group dance competition, Rangoli contest, Quiz competition and Slam Poetry in which students participated in large numbers to showcase their talent. The academic session ended with the farewell function for its final year students on 24 April 2018.

Department of Journalism & Mass Communication

The Department of Journalism is ranked 6th among the top ten institutions/colleges for mass communication and journalism in the year 2017-18 in a survey conducted by India Today in partnership with The Nielson Company. The Department of Journalism is committed to provide contemporary and industry-relevant media education. It has strived to realize the premier goals of excellence and knowledge by providing our students with the interface between the media industry and academics by inputs from eminent media personalities and renowned journalists.

The Department celebrated its annual festival Scoop on 8th February, 2018. The theme of this year's festival was 'Women and the Media'. Veteran journalist, Seema Mustafa delivered the keynote address to the students and set the tone for the following events.

A panel discussion with award-winning women journalists on the same theme was organized by the students. The participants in panel discussion included Ms Neha Dixit, Ms Ruhi Tewari, Ms Gayeti Singh, Ms Snigdha Poonam and Ms Manisha Pande. The students of the Department brought out their annual publication, Critique, which was released by the eminent guests on stage. This was followed by the 1st Sumegha Gulati Memorial Media Debate which saw participation from debating teams across the NCR colleges and universities. The students organized various other events such as Street Play competition and Photography.

The Department invites journalists, scholars and academicians every year to deliver relevant and enriching talks to the students. This year the Department invited Ms Surekha Deepak from the Indian Institute of Journalism and New Media, Bengaluru to deliver a talk on 'Fake News'. The interactive session was well-received by the students.

The academic results of the Department have been exceptional. Our students have raised the bar for the University. We set new benchmark for brilliance, hard work and dedication with our students topping the university consecutively.

The Department of Journalism takes pride in the overall excellence achieved and the positive change brought in our student's lives. We will persevere to better our accomplishments in the following years.

ENACTUS DCAC

Enactus DCAC is a chapter of Enactus India which is registered as a not for profit organization and operates through separate college chapters. We are a student body organization comprising of 70 members from various educational backgrounds. The various departments look after their respective responsibilities, in order to maintain efficient project operations. The ten members, heads body looks after the progress and scalability of projects catering to improve the lives of people from various backgrounds PROJECT VIKALP, where we provide the women from a community in Tilak Nagar a huge market and outreach through our collaboration with 'WH Smith'; which were sparkled with a lot of Project Vikalp tote bags sewed by the women in Tilak Nagar.

PROEJCT CANSURVIVE

Another of our project was Project CanSurvive, which brought smiles on the faces of a numerous breast cancer-stricken lives. Here in collaboration with the NGO, Win over Cancer we provided 'prosthetic bras' at a very minimal rates to all the patients of breast cancer. PROJECT ADARSH GRAM The last project we successfully sustained was Project Adarsh-Gram wherein we identified a village along the borders of Delhi, 'Khampur'. This village located along the vast industrial area of Naraina was in dire need of some entrepreneurial initiatives that could turn the tides by utilizing the various resources of the village and in turn extracting funds for the residents of the village. We did this, by taking our social entrepreneurial approach that could do the same by ensuring that the ownership remained within the community itself. We successfully installed a water filter, waste management system, an all-inclusive Ashram inside the village. We thus managed to make the village waste free and ensured the availability of clean and safe drinking water for the residents.

PROJECT KAUSHAL

Pradhan Mantri Kaushal VikasYojana. An initiative that had the targets of achieving magnanimous results through skilling provided by certain private agents which would be funded by the govt. This project operates through four of our existing centers in the village of Bhatti (near Chhatarpur), Khampur, Sarai (Faridabad) and Jaunty. We moved on to collaborate with private skilling corporations like Primero training, Mysha Skills Academy, Maruti Suzuki, Social Action Foundation. One of the major developments of the project would be our initiative in Jammu & Kashmir, wherein our team went through the Indian Army that spotted the need of a similar project in the Reasi district of J&K and thus offered a helping hand in the initiation of the services. Our team went on to organize some mass mobilization events and offered the knowledge of the initiatives that were being started and performed for them by the govt. PROJECT ADHIKAAR which aims at empowering women belonging to socially backward society through the help E-rickshaws by bringing the manufactures and micro-financers under one roof. This year Enactus DCAC in collaboration with GMR under its CSR initiative, has brought E-rickshaws to more women while targeting the areas of mundka, Mahipalpur and Dwarka. Various sets of field visits to NGOs like hands for help, Pradhishta, Action India, slum dwellers association has helped us reaching the dream of having 10 drivers on road and more such in pipeline. This year project Adhikaar, reached new heights after it was represented at an international stage, i. e., the Hults business plan which took place in Dubai. The business plan was an initiative of the Bill Clinton foundation and our team was the only team that represented the entire circuit of Delhi University. To further facilitate our initiatives the projects have received grants from companies such as Walmart and Blue Dart in different categories.
