3. Stressing upon the credibility factor, Prof Naveen Kumar stated that there must be uniformity across departments for ensuring that the Internal Assesment are awarded in an objective /unbiased manner. To this, the Principal, Dr. Anuradha Gupta said that a Monitoring Committee is already in place to address any discrepancy or matters related to internal assessment.

4. Prof. Naveen Kumar articulated the need for development of the college in all spheres and the good practices must be adopted.

5. Ms. Neeru Ailawadi pointed out that the teachers need to play a pro-active role in the various societies of the college.

6. Dr. Shalini Saksena highlighted the need for a fair mechanism for monitoring the attendance of the students participating in the events associated with the various societies of the college.

7. Ms. Khushi Vats pressed upon the need to have clean washrooms and a hygiene canteen in the college. She also pointed out that subscription to journals could add to and enrich the library.

8. Dr. Tarjeet Sabharwal requested for more funds to be allocated for library books for the students of journalism as there were many students opting for optional papers/GE papers floated by the dept.of journalism.

9. Dr. Anuradha Gupta stressed upon the need to promote research activities among students and teachers of the college. She emphasized that research is an important component for ensuring a good grade from NAAC. She also mooted the idea of utilizing the funds raised from the add-on courses for funding research activities in the college.

10. Mr. Animesh Mahopatra expressed that the good research papers produced by the students must be recognised and should be published.

11. Dr. Sabharwal proposed that as the students of journalism undertake research and produce a dissertation at the end of the final semester as a part of the curriculum, a student initiated research journal could be published after peer reviewing their research by the journalism faculty.

12. It was decided to initiate the process of purchase of equipments for the media lab at the earliest and to make it operational in the interest of the students.

The meeting ended with thanks to the Chair.

12. Significant contribution by IQAC during the current year (2019-20)

Curriculum Development	The faculty members of the college are actively involved in the formulation, upgradation and revision of the syllabus and curriculum at the university level.
	Various policy decisions are taken by the college to ensure high-quality teaching and learning. Some of the steps taken are listed as below:
	The college uses ICT as a pedagogical tool to facilitate blended learning.
	• For easy access to e-resources and other information the college has a wifi enabled campus.
	• The college has three seminar rooms and a Multi-Purpose Hall/Auditorium which is used for academic and extracurricular activities.
	• The college tries to ensure that an appropriate student-teacher ratio is maintained.
Teaching and Learning	• The college has an extensive and ever-increasing library equipped with a large collection of books/journals/newspapers/magazines/dissertations and e-resources.
reaching and Dearning	• The college encourages teachers to attend training programmes so that they are equipped with the latest knowledge in their field, as well as with pedagogical techniques and incorporate the same in their teaching process.
	• Students are encouraged to participate in subject-specific and interdisciplinary seminars, workshops, and conferences within the college as well as in inter college and interuniversity events. Students regularly publish their work in various journals/magazines/newspapers.
	• Various facilities are provided to divyang students, such as the college has 8 ramps with tactile paths in strategic locations, 3 washrooms, an EOC library, a LEXIC scanner and JAWS 13 in several laptops and computers for their use.

Examination and Evaluation	All the teaching as well as non-teaching staff of the college contribute towards the conduct of the examination in a cordial manner. The majority of the teaching staff is involved in settingthe question papers at the university level and is actively involved in evaluating answer scripts. Every individual teacher carries out his/her own internal assessment process through class tests, assignments, project reports and oral presentations, etc.
Research and Development:	Lots of emphasis is placed on developing the research acumen amongst the teachers and the students. A fully equipped library is a big help for the research scholars. The college even provides a sabbatical leave to the faculty members to undertake various major and minor research projects. Students are encouraged to peruse research projects under the guidance of concerned teachers and submit reports as part of the internal assessment. The college faculties are also involved in guiding research scholars for their Ph.D. work at the university level. • Faculty members are reimbursed registration fees for paper presentations in national/international conferences and seminars as per DU/UGC guidelines. • Faculty members are encouraged to take on roles as members of various academic and non-academic bodies, such as editorial and advisory boards etc. in other organizations.
Library, ICT and Physical Infrastructure / Instrumentation:	 Faculty members are provided with a number of classrooms with ICT provisions as well as computer laboratories are available. Internet is accessible for faculty as well as students. The campus is WiFi-enabled.

	• Teachers can access the rich library resources, central computing facilities, printers and scanners, etc. The library with its rich collection of books, journals and magazines is available and accessible to teachers and students. There are separate reading rooms for teachers and students. Also e-resource database is available for teachers and students to enrich their learning process.
Human Resource Management:	The college has the following policies and procedures to manage its human resources:
	• An Initiation Programme for the new appointees takes place wherein they are familiarised with the working and the rules and regulations of the institute.
	• The faculty members are encouraged to attend FTP/FDP as per the requirements of promotions and skill enhancement.
	• The administrative staff is also encouraged to attend training programmes on a regular basis. Welfare schemes, as per DU/UGC guidelines, are provided to the employees in the college.
	All rules regarding leaves, pay, benefits and LTC etc. are granted according to DU/UGC guidelines.
	• The roles, responsibilities and rights of staff are protected under rules laid down by the DU administration. Personal files and other information are well recorded and maintained.
Industry Interaction / Collaboration	The college organises regular industrial interactions, plant visits, corporate trips, thereby realising the goal of learning 'beyond the classroom' takes place. This helps them bridge the gap between theory and practice.

	• Internships in industry. Placement Cell, Broadway, is very proactive in facilitating campus placements for students. Every year lots of national and multinational organisations visit the college campus and recruit the students for their job placements. The placement cell organises various workshops and training programmes to train the students with regards to their communication skills, participation in group discussion and effective interviewing techniques.
Admission of Students:	The admissions for the undergraduate courses are done as per the guidelines received from University of Delhi and UGC.
	• The college has constituted various monitoring committees to ensure the smooth functioning of the admission process in the college.

1. Introduction of Integrated Library Management System (KOHA)

College library using KOHA Integrated Library Management System since 2022. This open-source software operates on a cloud server, providing a dynamic and efficient solution for library automation.

Koha encompasses modules for acquisitions, circulation and patron management, cataloguing, serials management, authorities, flexible reporting, label printing, multi-format notices, administration, Web-OPAC, offline circulation (for instances when Internet access is unavailable), and much more. It caters to libraries of all sizes, including consortia, multi-branch, multilingual and translatable, adheres to library standards, offers web-based interfaces, operates on open-source principles, and is suitable for both single-branch and multi-branch libraries.

2. Procedure for Operating Integrated Library Management System (KOHA) on Cloud Server.

The College Library has streamlined its operations through the utilization of KOHA's cloud-based Integrated Library Management System.

The following are the key functionalities of KOHA:

- ➤ WEB OPAC: Patrons can access comprehensive information about the library's collection, facilities, and services through the library's website. Two OPAC terminals, located on the ground floor, and one on the first floor, facilitate online searches for library publications.
- ➤ Remote Accessibility: Library resources, services, and facilities are accessible remotely, allowing patrons to conveniently check the availability, accessibility, and location of resources by various criteria, including Title, Author, Subject, Publisher, and Keywords.
- ➤ Patron Account Access: Patrons can access their library membership accounts using a Login ID and Password. The Login ID is the Member ID Number, and the initial Password is provided on the college ID card. Patrons can change their password for added security. Within their accounts, patrons can review book transaction records, fine charges, personal details, checkout history, and more, all from a remote location.
- ➤ OPAC Facility: The library offers Online Public Access Catalog (OPAC) facilities, with two terminals available on the ground floor and one on the first floor. This enables patrons to search for books and other publications online using criteria such as author, subject, title, barcode, and keywords.
- Access to E-Resources: Through Web-OPAC, patrons can access the library's collection of open-source and subscribed e-resources, including N-LIST (National Library and Information Services Infrastructure for Scholarly Content). Patrons can visit the N-LIST portal through the library's webpage\Web-OPAC or directly through https://nlist.inflibnet.ac.in/index.php, using their registered email ID and a password provided by the college library.

Introduction of Radio-Frequency Identification (RFID)

College Library introduced and implemented Radio-Frequency Identification (RFID) technology

RFID: Radio Frequency Identification technology uses radio waves to identify people or objects. College library incorporated RFID technology for efficient library management and this includes RFID-enabled smart cards, a self-circulation kiosk for quick and easy book borrowing, a book drop station for returns, and timely email notifications for over dues books. Patrons can check each book transaction simultaneously.

Procedure for Operating Radio-Frequency Identification (RFID)

Using RFID technology in libraries saves time of library staff's by automatizing their tasks. Uses RFID library management saves the times a book reader. Taking care of books and making them available to the book readers are important tasks. Majority of the library staff spent the time in keeping the record of incoming and outgoing of books.

The following are the key functionalities of RFID:

RFID Tags: Incorporating RFID tags within book covers, libraries can streamline book transactions. Each book's bibliographic data is entered into the library software. When a user brings a book for issue or return, the RFID reader reads the tag, allowing for quick processing. Upon exit, the RFID tag is checked to ensure proper issuance, and any irregularities trigger an instant alert. This system improves efficiency and effectively reduces document theft in libraries.

Self-Check-In touchscreen enabled user-friendly Kiosk is primarily for issue/return and renew of books in Library

-University of Delhi-

Shelf check- In/Self-Check-Out kiosk offer numerous benefits, including enhanced efficiency and convenience. It allows patrons to complete various common tasks on their own without the assistance of a dedicated employee such as self-issue/return and renew of books in library with its inbuilt screen and patrons can view & print transaction related information such as number of books issued, outstanding, fine etc.

RFID Book Dropbox enabled user-friendly Kiosk is primarily for return books in Library

The drop box used for returning the books it helps better circulation and gives time flexibility to patrons for returning of library materials issued by patrons.

The RFID Book Drop-Box is a solution that revolutionizes book returns in libraries. With this RFID Book Drop-Box, patrons can return books at their own convenience, eliminating the constraints of library hours and limited return windows. This hassle-free process allows individuals to return items even when the library is closed, catering to busy schedules.

RFID Digital Entry System (In/Out Management system of visitors)

It is used to track the patrons who visit the library or related locations like study zone, reading rooms, etc. It'll scan the barcode from the ID and log the entry time and exit time of the patrons. The patron data will be fetched from the Koha database along with the images and displayed on this system. The system uses the KOHA database to fetch the information of patrons and store it in another database along with the location, entry time, and exit time.

Welcome to Delhi College of Arts and Commerce, Delhi University

MESSAGE FROM PRINCIPAL DCAC, DU

Established in 1987, Delhi College of Arts and Commerce (DCAC) has achieved a reputation for nurturing and promoting excellence. Over the years, the college has made remarkable progress in the fields of both academic and extra-curricular activities. DCAC caters to the learning needs of more than 2500 students and has emerged as one of the most sought-after colleges in the University of Delhi.

At DCAC, we creatively negotiate between traditional values and the possibilities offered by the modern world. We try and inculcate the love of knowledge and learning among our students and develop skills to help them become responsible global citizens. With a focus on providing holistic education, the college encourages the use of innovative pedagogical practices to further the teaching-learning process.

"Delhi College of Arts and Commerce takes pride in its initiative towards skilling the students through Add-on courses. Join these courses and be empowered. Interested students may refer the notification on dcac.du.ac.in.
